Ramsay MacDonald, Scottish pacifist, is the first Labor Prime Minister and Foreign Secretary ever named in Great Britain. Among his Laborite Cabinet Ministers are John Robert Clynes, President of the National Union of General Workers, who is Lord Privy Seal and Deputy Government Leader in the House of Commons; Lord Haldane, as Lord Chancellor; Philip Snowden, Socialist "Intellectual," as Chancellor of the Exchequer; Arthur Henderson, former laborer and trade union leader, as Home Secretary; J. H. Thomas, railway union chief, as Secretary of State for Colonies; Baron Parmoor, leading pacifist, as Lord President of Council and Government leader in the House of Lords, and Sidney Webb, another labor "Intellectual," as Secretary of the Board of Trade.

HALF MILLION COME TO BIER

Moscow, Jan. 25.—Unofficial funeral services were conducted today for Nicolai Lenin, while thousands of mourning Russians continued to pour into this city for their final look upon the face of the dead leader.

Huge bonfires blazed during the night in Red square, in front of the Kremlin, where Lenin was buried Sunday. The weather was below zero. The ground was frozen so hard that it was necessary to blast it loose to prepare for the grave.

More than 500,000 men and women have passed before the crimson bier in Trade Union hall, where the body of the Communist chief reposes in a red coffin.

FANATICS CONTINUE TO SPREAD TERROR

Manila, Jan. 25.—The Colurums, a fanatical organization, have succeeded in reaching Mandanao Island from Surragao, and have cut communications between the towns of Placer and Mahit, where they are reported recruiting followers, burning and pillaging.

Governor General Wood is ready to send more reinforcements to the constabulary and possibly regular scouts if the revolt spreads. Governor Wood's yacht is speeding 150 constabulary men to Surragao. The superstition that Rizal, the Philippine National hero, has come to life is gaining wide credence in many sections.

MELLON IN LETTER TO COUZENS IGNORES CHALLENGE OF LATTER

Washington, Jan. 25.—A fresh chapter was written today in the now famous Mellon-Couzens tax correspondence, concerning the merits of the tax reduction plan which the secretary of the treasury has proposed.

In another letter to Senator Couzens, Republican of Michigan, his fourth in as many weeks, Mr. Mellon described Senator Couzens' reasoning processes as "unique" and reiterated his contention that American business is being mulcted and retarded by the present surtaxes on big incomes.

Mellon completely ignored, however, Couzens' recent challenge to reveal the extent of his personal wealth and disclose how much he personally would profit by the reduction of these surtaxes he has proposed.

Not even indirectly did Mellon refer to the "demand" of the senator, nor to the similar demands made by Democrats in Congress that he reveal to the country the extent of his personal fortunes. He contented himself today with answering Couzens' diatribes against the Mellon plan and with defending his references to Senator Couzens' own wealth, estimated at between $35,000,000 and $40,000,000.

"The case against high surtaxes," is really too plain for argument," said Mellon. "All business involves risk. If business loses the government shares not at all in the loss; if business is successful the government takes more than half the gain."

"What can long withstand these odds?"

"You may argue your theories as

OBREGON LEADS ATTACK IN ROUTING REBELS

Mexican President Personally In Charge of Troops and Is Exposed to Gun Fire—Insurgent Leader Killed.

Mexico City, Jan. 25.—President Alvaro Obregon was under fire for some time when he personally led an attack against the rebels in the Acambaro-Salvatierra region, putting them to rout, said advices from the western battlefield today. According to the dispatches, President Obregon, recklessly exposed himself while leading his men into battle.

The federalists were giving chase to the rebels south of Celaya, in the state of Guanajuato, when the insurgents turned to give battle.

Airplanes, preceding the federal advance, reported that the rebels had taken up a position near Salvatierra.

Field artillery was rushed up and the rebel positions were shelled. The rebels fled towards the hills in the state of Michoacan, hotly pursued by the federalists. There were two rebel columns engaged, led by Rafael Buena, and former War Secretary Salvador Alvarado.

Fifteen hundred rebels operating near Leon were cut off and routed by the federalists.

Tampico, Jan. 25.—General Cuadalupe, commander in chief of the rebel armies on the south and southeastern battlefronts, has been shot three times and wounded by one of his own officers, according to information received here today from Crizaba by the federal authorities.

Colonel Poincio Carranza had called upon General Sanchez at the latter's headquarters as spokesman for a group of rebel officers who had complained that orders given to them by Sanchez were unjust.

Sanchez refused to listen to the protest and was drawing his pistol to shoot Carranza for insubordination when the latter quickly drew his own pistol and opened fire. Carranza claims he shot in self defense.

Federal troops under General Benecio Lopez, federal commandant in the state of Tamaulipas, have recaptured Puertal Victoria.

GREENE COUNTY GETS ALTERNATE G. O. P. DELEGATE

Miss Hallie Q. Brown of Wilberforce, Named At Columbus

Columbus, O., Jan. 25.—Official endorsement was given at the state-wide conference of Republican leaders here late yesterday of the following candidates-at-large to the Republican national convention, to be held at Cleveland, next June:

Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty; U. S. Senators Willis Fess; Charles L. Knight, Akron; William Cooper Procter, Cincinnati; Mrs. David Tod, Youngstown; and Mrs. John Gordon Battelle, Columbus.

Approval of the candidates of these seven proposed delegates-at-large, it is stated, was given by President Coolidge at a recent conference at Washington between the president, Ohio Republican leaders and managers of President Coolidge's campaign for the presidential nomination. All seven candidates, it was stated, will be pledged to vote for the nomination of President Coolidge.

Alternates named are: Thomas S. Farrell, Cuyahoga County; Mrs. Wilma St. Clair Levan, Jefferson County; Edward Voltrath, of Crawford County; Miss Hallie Q. Brown, Greene County; Marshall Shelby, Lucas County; State Senator Geo. Kryder, and Fred B. Patterson, Highland County.

That he was not a candidate for seventh place, was the declaration early in the conference, of former Governor Harry L. Davis, Cleveland.

Senator J. F. Burke, Elyria, reiterated his announcement of his candidacy for governor and asserted he "was in the race to stay." No statement was available from Roscoe C. McCullough, Attorney General Crabbe or James A. White, former Ohio Anti-Saloon League superintendent, as to definite standing on their entering the gubernatorial race.

Fall Strikes Back At His Accusers Explaining Loan Made To Him By Doheny

Washington Jan. 25.—In addition to the $100,000 cash which he borrowed from Edward L. Doheny, multi-millionaire oil magnate ex-Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall scoured from Col. J. W. Zevely, a business partner of Harry F. Sinclair, the sum of $25,000 in liberty bonds in the autumn of 1921, Zevely testified this afternoon when he appeared as a witness before the Senate public lands committee in its investigation of the oil leases negotiated by Fall.

The money Zevely declared was given to Fall for the purpose of making a trip to Russia in the interests of the Sinclair people.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Haggard of face and obviously broken in spirit by succession of ugly charges that have been hurled at him in the last two weeks, ex-Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall struck back at his accusers today with what he declared to be the "true story" of the famous $100,000 loan.

"There was no connection whatever between the $100,000 loan I received from Doheny and the lease he obtained for naval reserve lands in California," Fall told International News Service.

He referred to testimony of E. D. Doheny, Pan American Petroleum Company before the Senate public lands committee investigating naval reserve leases to private interests. The oil magnate declared he loaned Fall the $100,000 on November 30, 1921, on a promissory note, and that no mention has been made since that time about payment of the loan.

"I loaned him (Fall) the money because he has been a warm personal friend of mine for 30 years and I was happy to do this favor for a friend, especially as I could spare the money," Doheny said.

The loan was made only shortly before Doheny got the lease for the 37,000 acres in the Elk Hills, California, reserve. The money was sent to Fall in Washington from New York in cash, carried in a little black satchel by Doheny's son.

"Mr. Doheny loaned me the money because of the years of unbroken friendship between us," Fall added. "Besides it was in gratitude for the many things I, and no one else, had been able to do for him in Washington during the involvement of his Mexican properties by the war in that country."

"He never gave me the money on account of any oil leases."

Fall also denied flatly that he borrowed any large sums other than the $100,000 from Doheny. The impression was gained by some members of the committee from the oil man's testimony that there might have been a second $100,000, inasmuch as Doheny said "the cost of buying the Harris ranch and improvements on his own ranch exceeded $100,000."

He declared Fall asserted the purpose of the loan was to purchase installations on the ex-Secretary's own ranch which were said to have cost about $80,000.

"I did not get any money from Harry F. Sinclair," Fall said. "I did not get any money from Edward B. McLean. The one thing I regret in all this unhappy situation is that I said I did get money from McLean, and I am ready to apologize for having said it."

Senator Caraway, Democrat of Arkansas, charged that "Fall suddenly came into possession of $180,000 after the leases to Doheny and Sinclair, although it was shown he was broke and unable to pay taxes before the leases were made."

To clarify these charges, the committee summoned Fall to appear Monday. The decision to delay Fall's appearance until next week was reached after committee members had communicated with the ex-Secretary's physician.

"Fall is in no condition to testify yet," the physician said. "He needs a couple of days' rest. He is worn out and fatigued by the trip from New Orleans. Fall is a very sick man and any untoward excitement might prove disastrous to him. Sometime ago I recommended that he go to Bermuda to recuperate. I fear for his health."

Fall was under the constant care of his physician today. He was staying at the home of Colonel J. W. Zevely, Sinclair's right hand man, but the physicians expected to send him to the country or to a more secluded part of town, to prepare for the ordeal on Monday.

"My patient will appear on Monday unless he has a turn for the worse and it is necessary to send him to a hospital," the doctor said. "He

COLD WAVE WILL AGAIN VISIT OHIO

Columbus, O., Jan. 25.—Another cold wave, lasting probably until sometime Monday, was predicted by United States Weatherman Alexander here today. The mercury is expected to drop to between 10 and 14 degrees above zero tonight and may go to a few degrees lower Saturday night, he stated. This prediction involves an expected drop of at least 20 degrees within the next 24 hours.

Snow flurries and a strong north-west wind are scheduled to accompany the cold wave.

ONE DEAD; TWO MISSING AFTER MYSTERY BLAST

Lives of 400 Imperiled And Half City Block Wiped Out

Syracuse N. Y., Jan. 25.—Syracuse police and fire authorities launched an investigation today into two of the worst conflagrations this city has known in years, one which gutted the Manhattan Hotel, in the heart of the downtown business district and the second, following a mysterious explosion, wiped out half a city block in Burnet avenue's "Little Italy."

In the first disaster one man is known to be dead, two other persons were imperiled and damage in excess of $100,000 was caused. Firemen are still pouring tons of water into the skeleton of the hotel, one of the city's oldest hostleries.

It is believed a central New York "arson ring" is responsible for the Burnet avenue fire. Five residences were completely destroyed in this blaze. The fire was one of the most sudden, and spread faster than any the firemen have ever been called upon to combat. That there was not an appalling loss of life is nothing short of miraculous.

CONVICTED BROKERS WILL APPEAL CASE

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 25.—Defense attorneys today set to work on appeals from the conviction late yesterday of George H. Beazell and William H. Chatfield, Jr., whose brokerage firm collapsed March 8, 1923, with a loss of $1,100,000 to clients.

The partners were convicted of embezzlement, the evidence showing that they used stock owned by customers as security for their own "short account" operation in New York. Chatfield, then a state senator, came within a few thousand votes of the lieutenant governorship of Ohio in 1922 when he was the Republican nominee.

TRIUMVIRATE WILL GOVERN RUSSIA

London, Jan. 24.—Soviet Russia will be ruled in the immediate future by a triumvirate composed of Leo Kameney, third vice-president of the council of people's commissaries; M. Rykov, second vice-president and M. Taurupa, commissar for inspection of workers and peasants councils, according to a Moscow dispatch to Evening News today, quoting George Tchitcherine, Peoples' commissar for foreign affairs. They will be known "as joint presidents," succeeding Nicolai Lenin, who was president of the council of people's commissaries.

WOMAN IS FOUND GUILTY; TO PAY WITH HER LIFE

Convicted of Killing Her Mother-in-Law In Georgia

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 25.—Another woman slayer will hang in Georgia. Today Mrs. Ida Hughes will be carried before Judge G. H. Howard and hear her sentence—death by hanging. It is the price she will pay for slaying her mother-in-law, Mrs. M. C. Hughes, here a little more than a month ago.

It was a brief trial, little time was consumed in presentation of evidence and less in the arguments. When the jury after three hours deliberation, marched into the courtroom the defendant was not present.

Judge Howard left the courtroom earlier because of illness, but counsel for the state and defense agreed to hear the verdict.

The words that meant so much to the woman slayer were "guilty of murder without recommendations of mercy," which meant death in Georgia.

Frank Hughes, husband of the defendant and son of the slain woman, wept over Assistant Solicitor Ed Stephens' shoulders as he unfolded the indictment. When he saw the verdict he turned pale and trembled. He is jointly indicted for the same crime.

ANDERSON TELLS OF MYSTERIOUS GIFT OF $25,000 TO DRY CAUSE

William H. Anderson

New York, Jan. 25.—Wm. H. Anderson, nationally known dry leader, admitted today he had concealed from the directors of the New York Anti-Saloon League, the fact that a mysterious stranger had given him $25,000 while he was head of the Anti-Saloon League in Baltimore, and given the impression he had obtained the money by mortgaging his home and borrowing on his life insurance.

He also rejected an offer to clear himself of all charges by revealing to the district attorney the name of the "generous friend."

The admission came in the midst of a grilling cross examination by Assistant District Attorney Pecora, who is prosecuting the dry leader on charges of forgery in the handling of league accounts.

Anderson had previously testified that the money put into the league publicity came from a man named "John T. King," described as a New York realty promoter, whom he had not seen since 1914.

The money he said was a gift and he "performed no service for it."

FOR CABINET TS ON POLICY READY FIXED

Decision Will Take Place "As Soon As Possible"

Jan. 25.—Great Britain's cabinet has decided to recognize the Russian Soviet government "as possible." It was officially announced from the foreign office this afternoon.

On to recognize the government of Moscow was the first official Premier Ramsay MacDonald's government.

Britain will probably be the first great power to recognize the Soviet Union. Italy probably will be the second.

It is understood that the government has tentatively selected James Grady, Laborite member of Commons as British ambassador to Moscow, when recognition is formally extended.

The British labor party was official on record in favor of Russian recognition even before it came into power.

It was reported that M. Rakovsky, head of the Russian Trade Mission in London, had conferred with Premier MacDonald on Thursday but subsequently the mission denied this report.

According to the trade mission negotiations for recognition were in progress before MacDonald became premier but were interrupted by the death of Lenin on Tuesday. They will be resumed in a few days to determine the conditions upon which recognition will be made.

Rakovsky said, that, in his opinion, the death of Lenin would not affect the favorable attitude of the British. It was intimated that the negotiations would be resumed next week, following Lenin's funeral Sunday.

Recognition takes the form of an Anglo-Russian treaty it will have to be ratified by parliament. In this event there may be a coalition of Liberals and Tories against recognition. This would put the new labor government in a precarious position.

Parliament will not be in session until February 12.

It is possible that the cabinet may send a commission to Russia to investigate conditions before there is actual recognition.

Moderates within the labor party urged that two of the conditions should be recognition by the soviets of the Russian debt and payment of indemnity by Moscow.

O'Grady was said to insist that the government abandon plans for a $50,000,000 naval base at Singapore before he would consent to act as ambassador. It is considered doubtful, however, that the cabinet will cancel plans for the Singapore works.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Recognition of the Russian Soviet government by Great Britain will not affect the policy of the United States toward Russia, it was announced officially at the state department today.

The principal objection of this government to the establishment of diplomatic relations with Russia is the alleged efforts of the Moscow authorities to propagandize against American institutions.

MABEL NORMAND TO GIVE VERSION

Chicago, Jan. 25.—Mabel Normand, film actress, will make her public appearance, upon her complete recovery from her siege in a Los Angeles hospital, before a group of Chicago club women, to have asked to hear her story of the shooting of Courtland S. Ames, her rich "playmate."

A letter to this effect was received here today from the actress' secretary.

CONVICT HELD AFTER SHOOTING

Troitt, Mich., Jan. 25.—George Z. 52, was shot dead today on the steps of a John R. Street residence. A bullet pierced his head.

The arrested John (Pudgy) Joseph, an ex-convict, found crouching in shadow of a yard behind the store.

According to police, Dunn formerly arrested the Michigan State Prison, battling prison guards and posesses with weapons smuggled mysteriously to him. Besides a murder in 1915 for which he is said to have served part of his sentence, Dunn is also alleged to have killed a St. Louis politician, William Tegan in the latter's saloon on October 31, 1921.

Two girls were taken from the John R. Street residence and held as material witnesses.

MACHINE AND POLE COME TOGETHER

A pole at Detroit Street and Home Avenue, owned by The Dayton, Springfield and Xenia Southern Railway, was sheared off at its base when it was struck by a Yellow Cab Co. taxi driven by Daniel Donovan, Friday morning.

Donovan was driving north on Detroit St., when the watchman at the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad crossing warned him of an approaching locomotive. He applied the brakes, but fearful of skidding onto the car tracks, turned his machine into the curb. It leaped the curb, striking and breaking off the post. The machine was not seriously damaged. The pole was used to carry a guy wire supporting the city car line trolley. It was replaced Friday afternoon.

SAYS STATE HAS ONLY PART OF FUNDS

Columbus, O., Jan. 25.—That the State Highway Department has but half of the required $8,000,000 for maintenance and road repairs in connection with the 1924 program was announced today at the annual meeting here of officers and trustees of the Ohio Good Roads Federation by executive Secretary W. A. Alsford. Numerous recommendations in regard to highway construction and maintenance were considered.

Among the guests at the meeting who gave short talks, were Dr. D. Frank Farland, Dayton and Harry E. Smith, Marietta, president of the Washington county chamber of commerce and auto club and State Highway Director Boulay.

MINISTER LOSES IN FIRST CLASH

Chicago, Jan. 25.—Blows fell thick and fast this afternoon about the head of Rev. Dr. Carl D. Case, while he was trying to disprove the charges of Mrs. Charlotte Leland, one of his congregation, that they had sinned against church and home. He wished to testify in the divorce suit of Albert Leland, Counsel for the wife objected and was sustained.

Nor would the court let Mrs. Leland take the stand when counsel for the clergyman wished her to. A third blow was the court's refusal to call a woman who the pastor charges is the real reason for Leland's desire to be free.

Styles BY LENORE

Here is a tailored frock success, with the simplicity that is fashionable and the chic that is French.

Can you imagine a more charming fancy than a motto frock? The motto is embroidered in simple outline stitch on the end of the long scarf, and reads, "Toujours gai"—always happy! Well, that is surely in keeping with our polyantha standards. "Au toi pour la vie," with a heart and arrow, is another legend which appears on the black ribbon scarf of a white blouse. The motto idea originated, I believe, with Premet.

French alpaca in Lanvin green is used to develop this interesting frock, which compromises on the sheathe silhouette by drawing itself snugly in at the hips with buttoned tabs. Rose, green and black ribbon gives a lot of character to the pique vestee and cuff, which are softened by an edging of net. The buttons are plain black bone.

MAN IS ATTACKED BY BATS IN CAVE SERIOUSLY HURT

Imlay, Nev., Jan. 25.—Attacked by a colony of bats, his clothing torn to shreds and his body a mass of scratches, Joseph Morasky, station agent, attributes his escape from death to the fact that he pulled his heavy cap down over his face.

Rambling over the country near here a few days ago, Morasky discovered a natural cave and investigated. After following a tunnel-like passageway for a hundred feet, he found that it terminated in a sheer drop of some twenty feet. Curiosity-stricken, he secured a rope, fastened one end around a huge boulder and lowered himself to the bottom. Morasky declares the cavern was literally alive with the ferocious little animals. Hundreds clung to his body and clawed and bit him. He doesn't remember how long he was in the cave, but a party of rescuers who had become alarmed at his long absence, found him staggering from the cave entrance.

Morasky declares he is not going back again until he gets a suit of armor.

BROKE UP HOUSEKEEPING

"We had to break up housekeeping because of my wife's stomach trouble. No medicine did her any good for more than a few hours. On a visit to Oshkosh a friend praised Mayr's Wonderful Remedy so highly my wife tried it and she has enjoyed the best of health since taking it." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sayre and Hemphill and druggists everywhere.

WEST RIVALS OLD WORLD TRADITIONS

Denver, Jan. 25.—That the "Old West"—popularly termed the "Wild West"—is as rich in the princely pomp of tradition and the glamour of chivalry as the Old World across the Atlantic, is the contention of Warren E. Boyer, former Denver newspaperman and now associated with the Denver Tourist Bureau, in a recent book, "Vanishing Trails of Romance."

Boyer has spent many years in research work and has issued a delightful series of mythological, legendary and historical tales of the early West, including romances of the mysterious Toltecs and Aztecs, Cliff Dwellers in New Mexico, the early-day Indians and of the blazed trails of the "pioneer American" settlers and cowboys of the ranges and plains of the Rocky Mountain country.

Boyer's collection of historic fictional romances includes many gripping stories on love and adventure of the Spaniards and Frenchmen who were outstanding among the bold explorers of the country west of the Mississippi.

UNIFORM LAWS URGED BY DONAHEY

Columbus, Jan. 25.—Need for simplification of Ohio statutes and for uniform laws on important subjects throughout the nation was stressed by Governor Donahey during an address of welcome here today at the opening session of the Ohio State Bar Association's mid winter meeting, being held at Hotel Deshler.

The governor urged uniformity of jurisdiction, practice and procedure of the courts.

"The so-called crime waves in our large centers of population in recent years, have brought about a nation wide demand for stricter law enforcement," asserted Governor Donahey, requesting the lawyers to aid in the endeavor to accomplish "greater administration of justice."

DISCRIMINATION CHARGED IN SUIT

Washington, Jan. 25.—Claiming he was discriminated against because of his color, Edward Crosby, a Negro physician of Detroit, today filed a complaint with the Interstate Commerce Commission, asking $120,000 damages against the Seaboard Air Line, South-Central, Louisville and Nashville and St. Louis-San Francisco Railroads, and the Pullman Company. He charged that these companies at certain times during 1922 and 1923 did not give him the same accommodation accorded white passengers in violation of the Interstate Commerce law.

OKLAHOMA ASKS FOR SENATE PROBE

Oklahoma City, Okla., Jan. 25.—The Oklahoma Senate today was to vote on a resolution asking the United States Senate to investigate a lease granted by former Secretary of the Interior Fall to the Eagle Picher Lead Company. The lease, it is alleged was granted for $25,000, a price said to have been much less than other bids. The leased property contained zinc and was part of the Quapaw Indian reservation.

Getting Too Fat? Try This—Reduce

People who don't grow too fat are the fortunate exception. But if you find the fat accumulating or already cumbersome, you will be wise to follow this suggestion, which is endorsed by thousands of people who know. Ask your druggist for Marmola Prescription Tablets and follow directions. One dollar is the price the world over. Get them from your own druggist or send price direct to Marmola Co., 4612 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich. By doing this you will be safe from harmful drugs and be able to reduce steadily and easily, without starvation diet or tiresome exercise.

comforts than a so-called "rich man" of a century ago.

The effect of rising wages and declining prices would seem to lead to diminishing profits. Yet these trends have been going on for many decades, and our country is still prosperous.

The answer, of course, is the increasing volume of production together with added economies in manufacturing costs. In the past, machinery has always been invented in time of need, which has enabled the nation to keep up its volume of production. They say necessity is the mother of invention. If she will have some more children, there will be no need to worry.

GIVES REPORT OF CITY WATER WORKS

Financial reports of the City of Xenia, and of the Municipal Water Department for the year 1923, were submitted to city commissioners at their meeting Thursday night, by City Auditor T. H. Zell.

The report shows satisfactory operation of the administration, it is said, but an action on them will not be taken until the next meeting. Separate copies were submitted to each commissioner and each was asked to read and digest the contents of the report, before they will be submitted for approval at the next meeting.

The meeting was brief, only routine affairs occupying the rest of the session.

Greene County Field Day Scheduled For May 10

A Greene County Field Day, similar to those held by the Preble, Darke and other counties, will be held at the Greene County Fair grounds, Saturday, May 10. It was decided by superintendents and executive heads of the county schools, at the meeting, held Thursday afternoon at the office of County Superintendent of Schools, H. C. Aultman.

The plans were laid after consultation with A. L. Fisher, Bowersville, president of the County Board of Education. "Field Day" will be held with the idea of "enlarging community spirit to the limits of the county" according to Superintendent Aultman. A further reason, is that the plans are in conformation with a recent law passed by the last Legislature, requiring that 100 minutes per week shall be devoted to physical training. The athletic events of the day, will be the culmination of the year's work, and will be held at the Fairgrounds, providing the site can be secured. The events will include running, jumping and pole vaulting contests, races and various other sports.

All pupils of both high schools and grades will furnish the contests. "Field Day" supplies have been ordered by seven school districts, Cedarville, Beaver Creek, Spring Valley, Bath Township, Yellow Springs, Cedarville and Caesar Creek.

The county-wide Junior-Senior reception including about 400 of the Junior pupils of Greene County High Schools will be held Friday, May 2. It was decided at the meeting, Thursday. The committee in charge will meet Friday evening, at 7:30 o'clock at the Junior Hall. All members are asked to bring a covered dish.

Mr. Elmer Goings of Springfield, was the guest of friends in Xenia, Thursday.

Mr. Frank McKay of Springfield, was a business visitor in Xenia, Thursday.

B. H. Slagle, of the Slagle Poster Advertising Company, who attended the Republican organization meeting at Columbus, was a guest at a dinner party, at the Hotel Desher, Wednesday night.

Mrs. Sarah Davis of West Market Street, who has been seriously ill, is unimproved.

"WHAT MORE IS NECESSARY TO MAKE US HAPPY?"

Let us pursue with courage and confidence our own federal and republican principles, our attachment to union and representative government. Kindly separated by nature and a wide ocean from the exterminating havoc of one-quarter of the globe; too high-minded to endure the degradations of the others, possessing a chosen country, with room enough for our descendants to the hundredth and thousandth generation; entertaining a due sense of our equal right to the use of our facilities, to the acquisitions of our own industry, to honor and confidence from our fellow-citizens, resulting not from birth, but from our actions and their sense of them; enlightened by a benign religion, professed indeed and practiced in various forms yet all of them inculcating honesty, truth, temperance, gratitude, and the love of man, acknowledging and adoring an overruling Providence, which by all its dispensations, proves that it delights in the happiness of man here and his greater happiness hereafter; with all these blessings what more is necessary to make us a happy and prosperous people? Still one thing more, fellow-citizens—a wise and frugal government, which shall restrain men from injuring one another, shall leave them otherwise free to regulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement, and shall not take from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned. This is the sum of good government; and this is necessary to close the circle of our felicities.—Thomas Jefferson, in first inaugural address.

EVEN VOLSTEAD WAS NOT "DRY" ENOUGH

There was some speculation why the Seventh Minnesota District sent the Rev. O. J. Kvale to Congress and kept Andrew J. Volstead at home. It is plain how. Mr. Volstead was a dry, but not dry enough. They grow them extra-dry in the fourteen counties of Minnesota's Seventh. Volstead might be sufficiently arid for parts of the country, but not so for Bigstone, Chippewa, Kandiyohi, Lasqui, Parle and Yellow Medicine. So the 215,496 folk of the Seventh made it Congressman Kvale, not Congressman Volstead. In the Kvale opinion, all Volstead ever did for law prohibition you could, in a manner of speaking, put in your eye. The Volstead act, says he, "is a law for the poor and a privilege for the rich." To a real dry it is the "greatest tragedy," and he predicts "a rising of the people." Meanwhile, he asks a law to tax all home-hidden liquors $10 a gallon and upward a year. In our innocence we regarded Andrew J. Volstead, as drier than a fence rail in August. We are, it appears, about to learn better.

SHREWD PREMIER.

Mussolini pleases Venice, and nearly everybody who ever went to Venice, by his refusal to allow a bridge to link the watery city with the mainland. So the motorists cannot honk into the midst of the pigeons of St. Mark's Place after all, and they may not park and picnic amid the crown jewels of the world's architecture that front on the famous square. The love of beauty is a ruling passion with the Italians. Proud of their heritage, they defend the tradition of the masterbuilders of old, and Mussolini, shrewd psychologist, is well aware of local pride in his defense of an esthetic citadel.

"MY SON"

He's supposed to be our son, our hope and our pride, in him all the dreams of our future abide. But whenever, some act to his credit occurs I never am mentioned, the glory is "hers," And whenever he's bad or has strayed from the line, Then always she speaks of the rascal as "mine."

When trouble has come she will sobberly say: "Do you know what YOUR son has been up to today? Your son spilled the ink on the living room floor! Your son broke the glass in the dining room door! I am telling you now something has to be done, It is high time you started correcting your son!"

But when to the neighbors she boasts of his worth, It is: "My son's the best little boy on the earth!"

CHURCH TO RAISE $12,500 SUNDAY IT IS ANNOUNCED

The First Presbyterian Church will raise $12,500 at the services next Sunday morning according to Rev. William H. Tilford, pastor. The re-opening and re-dedication took place last Sunday and no money was raised but next Sunday has been described as Financial Day. A slate has been prepared with 250 cards attached representing each $50. This slate is four feet by six and as the shares are sold the cards will be removed and when all are sold the slate is clean.

Judge H. L. Smith will represent the Building Committee in saving costs and repairs. Mr. John W. Prugh, will sell the shares. The Deacons will act as clerks and ushers. Mr. Prugh says: "We can raise the entire amount in 30 minutes. The people are ready to give and will give liberally." Preliminary canvasses indicate the success of this effort. The congregation will be supplied with score cards so that they can keep track of the bidding.

Accuse him of mischief, she'll just floor you flat With: "My son, I'm certain, would never do that! Of course there are times when he's wilfully bad. But then it's that temper he gets from his dad!"

It is then ready to mix with some kind of flavorings as follows: "Cocoanut Stepples: Work one cup of dry cocoa-powder into the fondant (it is best to do this before it has become the texture of dough) and also work into it several tablespoons of grated cocoanut; form the mass into cones. Now make a sirup of three tablespoons of water and one cup of granulated sugar; boil till it is brittle when tried in cold water, and then drop the cones into this, one by one, rolling them in extra cocoanut at once (the sirup makes the cocoanut-coating stick)."

All Preserved Food Should Be Boiled

Chicago. — Medical science knows no cure for botulism, but lives may be saved by boiling home-preserved foods. Dr. John C. Geiger, epidemiologist of the United States public health service attached to the University of Chicago, warned recently. He called attention to eight deaths within two weeks throughout the country, which he attributed to that poisoning.

It is not possible for the inexperienced to detect the spoilage, either by sight or taste, Doctor Geiger warned, and the only safe method is to boil the food before using it.

Today's Talks

KNOWLEDGE AND WISDOM
I recently had the opportunity of hearing that remarkable woman, Margaret Deland, give one of the finest addresses I ever listened to. It was during her talk that I had impressed upon me as never before the difference between knowledge and wisdom.

I realized how futile is mere knowledge without wisdom.

You may have a brain saturated to the limit with great knowledge, but if you have not the wisdom to use that knowledge, you might as well be ignorant.

And I am of the opinion that ignorance is the greatest curse in this world.

Lincoln was far from being a learned man. His knowledge was limited, but he was one of the wisest men who ever lived.

The wisest thing about Solomon was his desire for wisdom.

The colleges of the world turn out many thousands of educated men and women, in the sense of acquired knowledge, but the percentage of wise college graduates is small indeed.

You remember in the Bible that phrase about getting knowledge, but with that knowledge to get understanding.

Understanding is the heart of all knowledge.

When I was a boy I worked for a farmer. He had nothing but a few years of country school education, but I used to marvel at the wisdom of that man. To this day I often think of the wise things he talked to me about, and of his simple direct way of putting sound and great truths. Few college professors taught me as much as he taught me.

Knowledge is power—truly. But

FORD PRODUCTION FOR YEAR 1923

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 25.—The Ford Motor Company made 2,200,682 automobiles, trucks and tractors in 1923—775,059 more than in any previous year according to production figures for the year.

Of the total 1,915,485 automobiles and trucks were made in this country and 175,474 in foreign plants, including Canada. To the total of these are added 101,896 tractors and 7,825 Lincoln cars. The figures were coupled with an announcement that the Ford Company expects to exceed this figure in its 1924 production and that its plans to start early this spring on its program of 10,000 cars daily.

without knowing how to use that power you are like a great engine on a track with a line of coaches behind but with no one capable of running the engine to draw that train.

As you get knowledge, decide then and there just how you are going to use that knowledge.

GAS USERS ARE WARNED; CARE IS URGED IN HOMES

Cincinnati, Jan. 25.—Health Commissioner William H. Peters yesterday issued a statement, urging caution in the use of natural gas for heating purposes. Dr. Peters says: "Heating houses or rooms with natural gas in furnaces or stoves properly constructed is convenient, economical and generally satisfactory, and if the conditions are fulfilled, the danger is practically nil."

"When a salesman tells you that there is no danger connected with a gas stove tell him to revise his judgment."

"If the gas pressure is regulated and constant, if the gas stove has a fine connection, and if the room is ventilated, then the danger is remote."

"Natural gas, when mixed with air burns with a hot flame. Should the mixture be improper, carbon monoxide gas will be given off as a product of combustion. Inhalation of this gas is deadly. Carbon monoxide gives no warning. It is odorless, tasteless, invisible and nonirritating."

"Suspect carbon monoxide poisoning when unaccountable headaches come on if there are any gas stoves or gas grates burning, or if there is a sense of drowsiness in confined quarters. Suspect the cook stove when these symptoms come on during the preparation of a meal."

"Five deaths in the county during the last week ought to be an object lesson. If there had not been that great variation in gas pressure, if the windows had been open, three deaths would not have been recorded."

"In all of our cases investigated the stoves were of the portable type, not flue-connected."

"Carbon monoxide is the same poison which is given off in the exhaust gas of automobiles. Never, under any circumstances, start the motor without opening the door of the garage."

5 Operations—15 years suffering with constipation—Kellogg's Bran restores health

Mr. Lansing's case is typical of thousands of others. He found permanent relief from constipation in Kellogg's Bran because it is ALL bran. Nothing but ALL bran can be 100 per cent effective. Read what he says:

Dear Sir:

I have been afflicted with constipation for the past 15 years, and during that time I have been in four different hospitals and submitted to five different operations that were the result of constipation. I was getting so bad that every meal I ate caused me to vomit. Two months ago I was advised to eat your Kellogg's Bran. I tried it, and I was trying everything I could hear of. From that day on I have never taken a physic. My stomach does not sour any more and my bowels move regularly morning and evening. Yours sincerely, Frank Lansing, 1305 Jetties Ave., Marion, Ind.

For permanent relief, eat Kellogg's Bran regularly. Two tablespoons daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. It is guaranteed to bring results, or your grocer will return your money.

You will like the delicious nut-like flavor of Kellogg's Bran—so different from ordinary bran, which are unpalatable. Eat Kellogg's Bran with milk or cream. Sprinkle it over other cereals. Cook it with hot cereals. Try it in the recipes given on the package.

Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is served by leading hotels and clubs in individual packages. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by all grocers.

CHURCH THROWN IN PANIC BY MADMAN; WORSHIPPERS FLEE

Rome, Jan. 25.—At a little village in the vicinity of Naples the usual ceremony was going on Christmas Eve when Gioacchino Paribelli, who for a long time past has been a sufferer from the mania of persecution, was present in the church. During the celebration of the mass he suddenly cried out: "The end of the world has come!" which caused a wild confusion among the congregation. Panic followed and there was a wild rush for the doors. Paribelli bringing up the rear, armed with a pitchfork. The crowd of worshippers scattered and returned to their homes in the darkness, while the madman appeared at the door of his own home, where his father met him and endeavored to calm him. But his son attacked him furiously with his weapon in various parts of his body that his life was endangered. Paribelli then fell into convulsions. Returning to consciousness after a short time and realizing his position, he barricaded himself in the house to wait the arrival of the carabinieri. He was arrested later only after a fierce struggle.

COUNT TAKES JOB AS HORSEMAN IN LOS ANGELES CLUB

Los Angeles, Jan. 25.—Spurning financial assistance from his people, who are among the largest landowners of Denmark, Count S. Danneskiold Samsøe, son of Count and Countess Samsøe and on his mother's side a direct descendant of King Christian V of Denmark, has taken a job as horseman and general utility boy at the stables of the Midwick Country Club here.

The count is a handsome young man of 25. He is athletic and a fine physical specimen.

"It's jolly good sport," he said when he appeared at a local hotel to inquire for Prince Erik of the royal family of Denmark.

The Danish nobleman is also a direct descendant of several of the most heroic and famous characters of early Danish history. The family name, Danneskiold, was a famous one when Vikings ranged the seas. He is rapidly improving his English and says he intends to become an American.

At the Midwick stables the count is known as "Dan." In fact, few of the club members and none of his stable workers know of his blue-blooded ancestry. The count declares he is "on his own," making his way in the world, and says he intends to continue doing so. The count is a college graduate and has specialized in animal husbandry and agriculture.

FALL STRIKES BACK AT HIS ACCUSERS EXPLAINING LOAN

Zevilly, who accompanied Fall from New Orleans, was called to the stand today to testify, concerning 3,500 shares of stocks, worth $80,000 and $25,000 in liberty bonds loaned him without a receipt or note by Sinclair. Zevilly reiterated testimony of G. D. Wahberg, Sinclair's former auditor, that he used the money in purchasing a home in Long Island.

"It is ridiculous to intimate even that any of that money got into Mr. Fall's hands," he declared.

To friends who knew him during his nine years of influence in public life in Washington, Fall today seemed a pathetic figure. Admittedly, he was politically destroyed by the Teapot Dome probe.

He went out of Union Station by a side door, trying to avoid a host of newspapermen.

He was back amid familiar scenes and associations, but the jaunty air of the erect figure, the happy smile with which he greeted friends were gone.

His pale haggard face bore mute evidence of his illness, said by his physician, who gave him a thorough examination upon his arrival, to be "serious." He leaned upon a cane, or upon an escort's arm, when he walked. He moved slowly and with apparent difficulty. Only the sparkle and fire of his deeply set eyes remained of the older days in Washington when, as senator and then as secretary of the interior, he was a welcome and dominating figure in any company.

"I want the people to know that there was no corruption between Ed Doheny and me in these leases," he repeated this time and time again. His voice was almost plaintive. "I don't want him crucified. He didn't do anything wrong. I'll tell the whole story on the stand Monday."

Fall's voice was mere echo and he was affected, visibly moved, whenever he referred to Doheny.

"And if it will remove all suspicion from Al Fall, I'll go back to the directors of my company and ask them to convey the lands to the government," Doheny stated.

Sensations which have followed Doheny's suggestion that he would convey the oil reserve lands to the government if a board of experts appointed by President Coolidge determined the leases were made illegally or corruptly struck a responsive note today.

"I think the plan probably would be satisfactory," said Senator Smoot, Republican, of Utah, member of the committee. "The board could decide the appropriate action to be taken by the government and thus settle fairly any controversy. If something is wrong the government under Doheny's plan, could assign the lands. If nothing is found wrong the board could report that."

"I want a little more time to think it over," declared Senator Walsh, Democrat of Montana. "It seems to have some merit."

Senator Adams, Democrat of Colorado, praised Doheny's spirit and willingness.

Meanwhile, Democratic leaders today were busy working on a compromise resolution to present to the Senate Monday, directing President Coolidge to institute proceedings to recover Teapot Dome.

DEATH CLAIMS MISS ISABELLE WINTER IN PAINESVILLE, OHIO

Miss Isabelle Winter, 48, of Cedarville, Ohio, died at nine o'clock Friday morning, according to word received in this city.

Miss Winter, who was a teacher in the Painesville High School and in charge of the school finances, suffered a sudden stroke of paralysis during the luncheon hour while at the school, Monday.

She was immediately removed to the hospital, where it was thought she would regain consciousness Monday evening. She relapsed, however, and never regained consciousness. She had not been well since the death of her mother four years ago.

Miss Winter was born in Cedarville, January 26, 1876, the daughter of Dr. Andrew Winter and Nancy Kyle Turnbull Winter. She was reared in Cedarville, attending the public schools there and graduating from Cedarville College. She attended New York University summer school two years ago. Her father died 33 years ago next July and her mother died four years ago.

Miss Winter taught in the Cedarville High School two years before she became a member of the faculty of Painesville High School, where she taught seven years, and was a popular member of the faculty. She had been a teacher 20 years. Since the death of her mother four years ago, Miss Winter had spent her summer vacations at the home of Mrs. Estella Holt, 111 West Market Street, this city, a distant relative.

She was a member of the United Presbyterian Church of Cedarville. Surviving is one sister, Mrs. Charles E. Nesbitt, of Loveland, and one brother, Andrew Winter, Cedarville hardware merchant.

The body will arrive in Xenia Sunday afternoon and will be taken to the Nagley Funeral Home, East Market Street. Friends may call at the funeral home after five o'clock, Sunday evening. Services will be held there Monday morning at 10 o'clock, with interment at Cedarville.

CENTRAL WILL MEET TROY AND COVINGTON

After emerging from a distressing one-point defeat at the hands of Moraine Park High, Coach Earl "Puss" Burner, will lead his Central High basketball team for an invasion of Miami County for the nearby weekend.

The bombardment of Miami County will find the blue and white pill tappers storming the heights at Troy Friday evening and engaging in friendly court dispute with Covington High, Saturday. Troy is an ancient and honorable rival of considerable aplomb and ability while Covington is a hitherto unknown opponent of somewhat veiled reputation in these parts.

If Captain Schwab and his playmates drop either one of these set-plays by the humble margin of one point, Coach Burner is going to cast aside his dignity, stalk a rabbit's hind foot in a churchyard at midnight, run around his chair three times, carry a horse shoe in his hip pocket and make a wish on every load of hay.

The Xenia basketballers have been flattened in but two games this season, and both times the winner perched athwart a one-point victory. The first time, in the opening overture of the present season, Wilmington High cracked the locals for a one-point victory and Moraine Park nosed out the locals last week by a similar score.

There have been lots of one-point games during this season. Practically every game decided on the court this season, here and elsewhere, has been close enough to cause a couple of gasps of hysteria, and Xenia even won one of its games by that kind of a count. Nevertheless, no matter how close for comfort, no matter which team wins, Coach Burner has decided, and he has persuaded his pastimes to ensnare a healthy lead in both games this week.

BABBS WALLOP CEDARVILLE 5 AND CENTRAL HIGH BENEFITS

By L. J. WONES

Babbs Winchester basketball team defeated Cedarville College Thursday evening at the High School gym by a 14 to 11 score in a tightly contested game. The game was staged for the benefit of the Central High School Athletic Association. A nice sum will be realized for there was a large crowd on hand despite the fact the weather was disagreeable.

Both teams exhibited tight defense. The paswork of both sides was good but both missed many easy shots at the goal. The last half was the fastest.

Gegner and Reutinger were the mainstays for the winners, each with six points to his credit. Baynard was next high with two from the free-throw line. The rest of the team gave a nice exhibition of the indoor sport. Witham at left guard played his usual good game.

Currie and Taylor, former Central High stars, put up a fine game for the Cedarville outfit. Currie caged the pill twice while Taylor got one from the field and one from the foul line. Townsley and Davis also showed up well.

Gegner put his team in the running with a basket from the field and Baynard made good on a foul. This was all the scoring in the first quarter. Cedarville had five shots from the foul line but all chances failed. The score at the quarter was Babbs 3, Cedarville 0.

The second quarter was tight and neither team scored from the field. Taylor was first to score for his team when he located the net from the 15 foot line. Baynard had two shots at the net from the foul line and he bagged one while the other fell short of the intended mark. The score as the half closed was Babbs 4, Cedarville 1.

In the last half both teams opened up with the result that they scored 10 points apiece but the lead that the Winchester held during the first half won the game for them.

The College outfit played the locals in the third session, scoring five points to the Winchester's one. Reutinger was first to score with a foul. Townsley caged one from the field. Davis made a foul. Taylor dropped in a long one and Cedarville was leading as the period closed by a 6 to 5 score.

The last quarter was a bitter struggle and both teams fought with everything they had to obtain a safe lead. Gegner made a long one which put his team out in front. Townsley made a foul that tied the score at 7 all. Reutinger broke the tie with a foul and Gegner kicked in with another fielder. Cedarville rallied at this stage.

BELIEVE JOIE RAY IS THROUGH AS YANKEE HOPE

By DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, Jan. 25.—Among those who whisper behind the hand, the insinuation has been made that the man who hold the watches here, greatest of American distance runners, has become passe and that the American Olympic Committee has about concluded that it must look elsewhere for a Yankee "hope" in distance events at Paris. This impression is declared to have been prompted by the fact that Ray ran 1,500 meters in the club-foot time of 4:08 and was all run out to beat Willie Goodwin in 4:28 for the mile in two races held to date at the local indoor season.

The gossip reached Ray's ears, an inevitable development and the innuendo was stung. The result is that he has offered to beat the best distance men available in two races on one and the same evening and has named the Milrose games on Wednesday next as the occasion. The distances will be three quarters of a mile and a mile and a half.

In view of the fact that probably the flower of American distance running, barring the far west and Pacific coast, will go to the post in the two events, Ray's proposition is not without downright temerity. At three quarters he will have to run over a field composed of Erich Sundblad, Swedish champion; Lloyd Hahn, who beat Ray from twenty yards only a week ago; Jimmy Colly, intercollegiate champion; Enck, of Penn State; Wharton, of Chicago, and Wolters of Iowa, all of whom can step a half in 1:56 or better.

At the longer distance, Joie will step out with a new set of rivals, among whom will be Willie Goodwin, Ray Baker, Chicago; E. M. Brown, of Boston, former intercollegiate cross country king; Hillman of Maine; Maunz of Syracuse and Bertsch of Buffalo, among others.

This field would seem to lack the class of the other and it is assuredly more to Ray's liking.

It is the time element that makes Ray's attempt difficult. Run on separate evenings or two hours apart and Joie would figure to cakewalk, if he is the Ray of old. Sent away within an hour, as they probably will be the respective fields have too many men just a stride or so slower than the champ to make a double victory any thing short of a seven day wonder. It would be comparable only with the "double" of Ted Meredith in the quarter and half in the outdoor collegiates.

Currie making two long ones in rapid succession that put his team in the lead by a 11 to 10 score. Reutinger then got a brace of baskets that spelled disaster for the Cedarville gang.

Lineup and summary:
Babbs Winchester (14) Cedarville (11)
Gegner RF Taylor
Baynard C Rockhold
Reutinger (6) RG Townsley
Witham LG Davis

Substitutions: Babbs—Peter for Reutinger, Riddell for Woolary, Muterspaw for Baynard, Baynard for Muterspaw, Reutinger for Peters, Woolary for Riddell, Cedarville—Cooper for Taylor, Taylor for Cooper, Field goals: Gegner 3, Reutinger 2, L. Currie 2, Taylor 1, Townsley 1. Foul goals: Baynard 2, Reutinger 2, Taylor 1, Townsley 1, Davis 1. Referee L. Rachford. Time of quarters 10 minutes. Scorer—Wones.

COUNTY COURT TOURNEY TO BE HELD MARCH 8

The annual Greene County High School Basketball Tournament will be staged at Kelly Gym, Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Saturday, March 8.

This was decided at a meeting of the County High School Athletic Association, composed of superintendents and school heads, at a meeting at the office of H. C. Aultman, county superintendent, Thursday afternoon.

An all-star all-county team to be selected the day of the annual tournament, will play an all-star second team picked the same day. Friday night, March 14, it was decided, although a place for the game was not selected. A county high school field day, featured by a program of field day events in which athletes from the various high schools will take part, will be held May 10, probably at the County Fairgrounds.

The county high school tournament was inaugurated at Antioch College in 1915, and has been held annually since then, cups being awarded the winners each year. Original Xenia Central High took part in the tourney, but recently has withdrawn from the competition. Girls' teams have participated in a tournament at the same time, but school officials have ruled tournament play is too strenuous for the girls, and will be barred from the tourneys in the future.

Much rivalry exists during the tournament, and the title of county champion and the cup that goes with it, inspire some of the best basketball seen in the county. School superintendents will each select a first and second all-star team, and their selections must be received by Superintendent Aultman by five o'clock on tournament day. Players who receive the highest number of votes will be given positions on the selected all-star quintet. All-star teams are usually mythical organizations, picked by experts to honor players of unusual ability. The game to be played by these Greene County all-star teams however, at a place to be selected later, will give opportunity to these athletes to prove their all-star qualifications.

KINGMAN FIVE WINS HANDILY FROM BABB'S 5

The Babbs Winchester basketball team lost to the Kingman Independents at Kingman Wednesday night, 37 to 16. In spite of the apparent one-sidedness of the score, the game was fast and well played.

The Independents are made up of former high school stars who made court history at Kingman a year or so ago. Thompson, crack left forward, was the stellar performer of the lot, contributing ten field goals and one foul to his team's total. The lineup and summary:

Winchesters (10) Kingman (37)
Muterspaw LF Thompson
Riddell RF Carter
Gegner C Lundy
Peters LG Wall
Witham RG Stingley
Substitutions: RG for Muterspaw, Woolary for Riddell, Reutinger for Peters, Coyle for Wall, Field Goals: Muterspaw 1, Riddell 1; Gegner 1; Baynard 1; Thompson 10; Carter 3; Lundy 2; Stingley 1. Foul Goals: Baynard 2; Thompson 1; Carter 2.

ANTIOCH FIVE LOSES
Antioch College, Yellow Springs, basketball team lost to Wilmington College at Wilmington Thursday night 32 to 31. Antioch was leading at the close of the first half, 16 to 15 but the Quakers played more brilliantly in the second period. Antioch girls easily won their game with the Wilmington College girls 23 to 10.

MYSTERY SURROUNDS CAUSE OF FIRE IN TOWNSHIP SCHOOL

Mystery surrounds the origin of a fire that destroyed Rural School No. 9, Valley road, Beaver Creek Twp., early Thursday evening, throwing 25 children out of classes.

As a result of the blaze, school officials, Friday were confronted by the problem of distributing these children in other schools and providing transportation for them. A special meeting of the Beaver Creek Twp. board of Education, at which H. C. Aultman, county school superintendent was present, was held Friday afternoon at Alpha High School to consider the question.

The building was a one-room brick structure erected in 1881 and said to be in good condition. The conflagration was first noticed about nine o'clock by Mrs. Harry Marshall, Valley road, who aroused neighbors, D. M. Kyle, Valley road, was the first to reach the scene and about a dozen other neighbors responded to the alarm. The fire gained so rapidly, however, that they directed their efforts to preventing the home of Harry Devoe, nearby, from catching fire. Sparks from the burning school house fell on the roof of the Devoe home, but the fact that Thursday's rain had soaked the roof, prevented another fire.

The fire started inside the building and the roof fell in within ten minutes. Children had carried out the fire and ashes from the heating stove before the close of school, and it is believed, that either a spark was smoldering in the flue, which was believed to be defective, or that the building was fired from outside sources. Neighbors say motoring parties frequently stop there and that there were evidences the school was broken into several nights ago, a window having been forced open.

If nocturnal visitors invaded the building early in the evening, it is believed they may have rekindled a fire in the school, either resulting in the fire starting from the defective flue or from the stove becoming overheated. Only the brick walls were left standing, all contents, including desks, books, supplies, globes and other school equipment being consumed. The loss is estimated at between $2,000 and $3,000.

The school is taught by Miss Dorothy Walton, Indian Riffle Road, and will probably be rebuilt on its present site. In the meantime children may be transported to Alpha to school. The school at Trebeins is the nearest in the township, but it is already in an overcrowded condition. It is said, Pupils Friday delighted in the fact there was no school to attend.

SULPHUR SOOTHES UGLY, ITCHING SKIN

The First Application Makes Skin Cool and Comfortable

If you are suffering from eczema or some other torturing, embarrassing skin trouble you may quickly be rid of it by using Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist.

This sulphur preparation, because of its germ destroying properties, seldom fails to quickly subdue itching, even of fiery eczema. The first application makes the skin cool and comfortable. Rash and blotches are healed right up. Rowles Mentho-Sulphur is applied like any pleasant cold cream and is perfectly harmless. You can obtain a small jar from any good druggist.

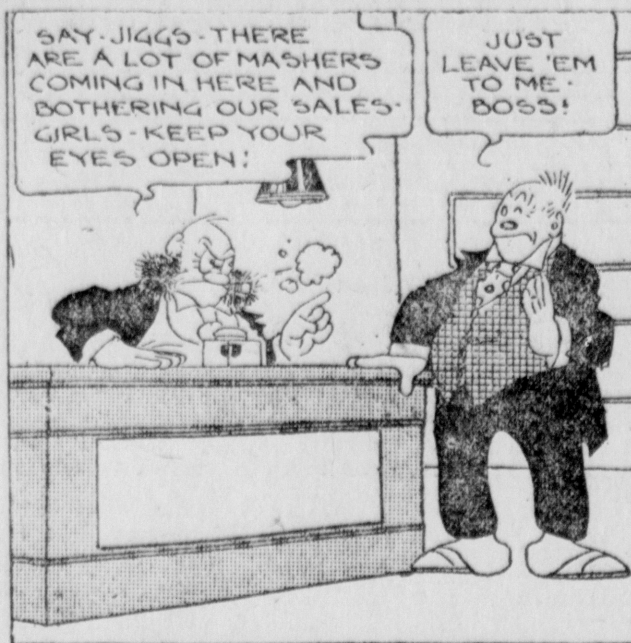

MRS. H. O. HAWBECKER, ETNA, O.
"When a medicine helps one as much as Ka-di-ok has helped me, I consider it my duty to tell others about it," said Mrs. H. O. Hawbecker, a well-known resident of Etna, O.

"I had considerable trouble with my stomach and suffered from indigestion after every meal; my kidneys bothered me and I felt tired all the time from the loss of sleep. I was nervous and weak and scarcely able to do anything. 'Ka-di-ok' has surely done me a world of good, and each day I can notice a great improvement in my condition. My stomach is improving right along; my kidneys don't bother me at all and my nervous condition is much better. I sleep for several hours at a stretch through the night and get up well rested. I am feeling quite strong and well in every way. I surely think Ka-di-ok is a wonderful medicine and am glad to tell others about it."

Ka-di-ok can be had in Xenia at Sayre and Hemphill Drug Store.

BRINGING UP FATHER

FARM PROGRESS

OVER 300 EVENTS ON FARMERS' WEEK AT STATE CAPITAL

Columbus, Jan. 25.—With "co-operative agriculture" as its keynote, 311 lectures, demonstrations, addresses and recreation hours constitute the program of the twelfth annual Ohio Farmers' Week to be held February 4 to 8 at the Ohio State University. More than 150 speakers are scheduled to address Ohio farmers and members of their family.

Among the outstanding speakers of the week will be Judge Florence E. Allen, of the Ohio Supreme Court; former Dean Eugene M. Davenport, of the University of Illinois; George E. Roberts, president of the National City Bank, of New York; D. C. Wills, of the Cleveland Federal Reserve Bank; Charles E. Thorne of the Ohio Experiment Station; and President W. O. Thompson and Dean Alfred Vivian of the Ohio State University.

The week's program, designed among other things to emphasize the "close relation between the farm and the home," will cover a multitude of things of interest to farm people. It ranges from crops to babies, from poultry to schools and churches, from old-time country dancing to new ways to make old things to eat taste like new and from country newspapers to tractors and sewing machines. It covers all sorts of little things intended to save labor, yield more money and to make more interesting the farmer's work in his barns, fields and home.

Along with the meetings designed to tackle the farmer's problems and to seek a way for his relief from present conditions, will be the annual meetings of 17 farmers' and allied organizations. Among these will be the Ohio Forestry Association, Ohio the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation, beekeepers, vegetable growers, Guernsey breeders, Jersey Cattle Club, sheep and wool growers, dairymen and others.

Recognizing the farm wife's problem also, a home and community conference has been added to the general Farmers' Week program. Child health and welfare will be the chief topics for discussion at these meetings. To aid mothers who bring their children with them, a free day nursery will be conducted for young children. A competent nurse will be in charge. Thirty talks and demonstrations are scheduled for the home and community conference.

A potato show and an exhibit of simple labor saving devices for the farm and home have been added to the list of exhibitions. Among the others are an egg and poultry show, an apple show, corn and grain show and newspaper exhibit.

Recreation hours, featuring old-time music and square dances, will be held daily just after supper and just before the evening program begins. On the night of February 5 students in the college of agriculture will entertain with stunts. On the following evening there will be a string choir concert and the next night a "co-operative concert," the nature of which is shrouded in mystery.

On Friday night, the last of Farmers' Week, a "Grand Harmonica Concert" and old time country fiddling will be held in place of the old fiddlers' competition of previous years. This event will determine the Champion fiddler of Ohio.

ONE BRIEF EXQUISITE MOMENT

Chapter 74

By their combined efforts they were able to reach the shore before the frail craft filled with water. Lee grasped the edge of the bank while Hope jumped quickly from the canoe. Then together they emptied the water from it and drew it up after them.

"Where's the lantern? It isn't wet? We've got to see to mend the canoe," Hope cried despairingly.

"We can't mend it. But—but it doesn't matter," Lee returned strangely. He stood with the lantern in his hand, and seemed to have no thought of lighting it.

Across the black waters of the little river, over the tops of the tall pine trees, a pale moon came sailing higher and higher into the sky.

"We must mend it. It will be too late. Please light the lantern," Hope entreated. She stepped toward him and tried to take the lantern from his hand. Then in the white light of the moon she saw the expression on his face and she stood for a second spell bound. She seemed powerless to turn her eyes from his face.

"I don't care about the canoe. I don't care about anything or anybody. It's just you—it's you that I love!" he cried suddenly, letting the lantern slip from his grasp.

And even then she could not move but stood looking up at him. And then the next second he had her in his arms and was crushing her against him.

"I love you! Nothing else matters to me, it's real—the only real thing that has come into my life. Whether I have the right to love you or not, I do—and you've got to know it," he said passionately. Then he stooped over her and kissed her lips.

She gave herself up to his kisses for one exquisite moment. It was as if she knew that all her love and happiness for the rest of her life must be found in that one kiss.

Then very gently she forced him from her.

"No! don't need you. I can't have you!" she said falteringly.

He reached his arms toward her again.

"I have work to do—for Hugh," she said softly.

"But you love me, don't you? You have told me so in many different ways when you have not meant to. I—I'm not blind! And if we love each other like this it is not right that anything should keep us apart," he insisted.

He stood looking down at her waiting for her answer.

When she raised her face to his there were tears in her eyes, but he did not see them in the soft moonlight.

"You must go to Cynthia. It is my wish, Lee," she pleaded, struggling to control the mad longing of her heart.

He dropped his arms limply.

"You mean you do not care? You don't want me?" he demanded passionately.

The hurt quality in his voice pierced her heart. She longed to answer his love with the love that was rightly his—this love that he had won in spite of all the barriers. But she could not give it to him. Even though her love was rightly his, she knew she must face the duty to which she had long ago bound herself to be true.

"Come Lee, quick! Help me to get the canoe mended—we will miss the train," she answered, stifling the pain it caused her to hurt him so.

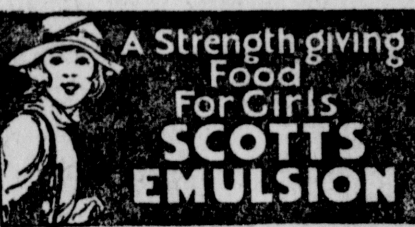

She turned from him and went over and tried to examine by the light of the moon, the place where the canoe had been damaged.

At first she was afraid he would not come and help her. Then after a minute she heard him strike a match and saw that he had lit the lantern and was coming toward her.

Tomorrow—Only Goodbye.
